LOGISTICS ORDER

The Court enters the following logistical order and instructions in preparation for the trial of the above-stated matters.

A. Deposition Transcripts

The Court ORDERS the Parties to provide the Court with courtesy copies of the deposition transcripts that they intend to introduce into evidence at the Trial. The Court ORDERS these courtesy copies be delivered to the Court no later than THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 2023.

The courtesy copies should be organized in the following manner. The first tab shall include the deposition in full and highlight the portions of the testimony they intend to introduce into the Trial. All portions agreed to by the Parties shall be highlighted in yellow, all portions that the Plaintiffs wish to offer but Defendants object to shall be highlighted in orange, and all portions that Defendants wish to offer but Plaintiffs object to shall be highlighted in blue.

The second tab shall include a chart that shows the following:

Beginning of designation	End of designation

B. Trial Presentation

The Court will discuss trial presentation of evidence with the Parties at a conference call to be held on Tuesday, August 22, 2023 at 2:00 P.M.

C. Transcripts

As the Court mentioned at the Pretrial Conference, the Court will do its best to make daily transcripts available as an option; however, in the event that there is a change, the Parties will be immediately notified. The Court provides a cautionary instruction that the availability of daily transcripts is, in part, dependent on all speakers speaking clearly and slowly enough to allow for accurate and timely transcription.

<sup>1</sup> If a particular transcript is being admitted in more than one case, the Parties must indicate in the appropriate column, which Party is objecting the specific objection that they are making (e.g., Pendergrass Objection: calls for speculation; Grant Objection: calls for speculation).

<sup>2</sup> Similarly, if multiple Parties object to a designation, the responses should clearly indicate to which Party the response pertains (e.g., Response to Pendergrass Objections: not timely raised; Response to Grant Objections: not timely raised).

D. Conclusion

In conclusion, the Parties are ORDERED to comply with the pretrial and trial logistical instructions herein.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 18th day of August, 2023.
