The Honorable Jesse M. Furman
United States District Court for the Southern District of New York
40 Centre Street, Room 2202
New York, NY 10007

RE: Plaintiffs' letter-motion to compel production of documents in State of New York, et al. v. U.S. Dep't of Commerce, et al., 18-CV-2921 (JMF).

Dear Judge Furman,

Plaintiffs seek disclosure of seven withheld documents that were conveyed outside the Commerce Department: (1) six that the Commerce Department disclosed to Mark Neuman; and (2) one transmitted by James Uthmeier to John Gore. See Ex. 1. Defendants fail to meet their burden of proving the claimed privileges apply. In re County of Erie, 473 F.3d 413, 418 (2d Cir. 2007). The parties were unable to resolve this dispute through meet-and-confer discussions. Plaintiffs request, pursuant to this Court's Rule 2(C), that the Court review these documents in camera to determine whether to order their disclosure.

1. Documents shared with Mark Neuman. Defendants advised Plaintiffs on October 24 and October 25 that six documents previously withheld on privilege grounds (AR 2021, 3731, 10249, 10285, 10296, COM_DIS 20920) had been shared with Mr. Neuman. Ex. 2; Ex. 3. Disclosing these documents to Mr. Neuman waives those privileges.

The attorney-client privilege (claimed for four documents) is waived because the documents were not kept confidential. Mr. Neuman is not a lawyer and the documents were not shared to obtain legal advice. Indeed, Plaintiffs previously contested an effort to shield records shared with Mr. Neuman, and Defendants withdrew privilege claims conceding that the privilege had been "mistakenly marked." Docket No. 254, ¶ 15. Defendants now cite Trustees of Elec. Workers Local No. 26 v. Trust Fund Advisors, 266 F.R.D. 1 (D.D.C. 2010), contending that a third-party "consultant and trusted adviser" falls within the privilege. Ex. 2. But in that case, the third parties were two attorneys and a paid investment advisor with a fiduciary relationship. Trustees, 266 F.R.D. at 3-7. Mr. Neuman is not a lawyer, paid advisor, or fiduciary.

The deliberative process privilege (claimed for five documents) is likewise waived. That privilege protects inter- or intra-agency communications, Winfield, 2018 WL 716013, at *4; but communications between Commerce and Mr. Neuman are not communications between government agencies. During the meet-and-confer, Defendants stated that because Mr. Neuman is a "trusted adviser," Ex. 2, these communications were covered by the "consultant corollary" identified in Department of Interior v. Klamath Water Users Protective Ass'n, 532 U.S. 1 (2001). But in opposing Plaintiffs' motion to depose Mr. Neuman, Defendants stated the opposite. See Docket No. 346 ("Mr. Neuman . . . was not acting as a high-level advisor to Secretary Ross, but rather was one of a large number of people who communicated information or opinions"). Defendants cannot change facts when it suits their purposes. See Micilli v. Liddle & Robinson LLP, No. 15-cv-2141 (JMF), 2016 WL 2997507, at * 4 (S.D.N.Y. May 23, 2016) (burden to establish privilege is "not discharged by mere conclusory or ipse dixit assertions").

The work-product protection (claimed for three documents) is waived as well. Defendants make no claim that the disclosures to Mr. Neuman were in aid of litigation or that they shared a “common adversary,” Medinol, Ltd. v. Boston Sci. Corp., 214 F.R.D. 113, 116 (S.D.N.Y. 2002). Defendants’ assertions that these privileges extend to Mr. Neuman refer only to the attorney-client and deliberative process privileges, see Ex. 2, Ex. 3; and their privilege logs do not even identify the selective disclosures or explain how work-product protection attaches to Mr. Neuman, see Ex. 1. The work-product protection is waived.

2. Note to Acting AAG John Gore. Defendants have withheld on claims of deliberative process, attorney-client, and work product privilege a note from Mr. Uthmeier to Mr. Gore (DOJ15197) that accompanied a copy of the August 2017 Uthmeier Memo (which the Court separately considered at Docket No. 361). Defendants took the position during an October 26 meet-and-confer that any challenge to this privilege claim is untimely based on the October 24 status conference and subsequent scheduling order. (Docket No. 401.) Plaintiffs respectfully disagree. At the status conference, Plaintiffs described the possible need to compel disclosure of several documents in advance of Mr. Gore’s deposition, see Oct. 24 Tr. at 31; and the Court directed next-day briefing in light of the timing of that deposition, id. at 32-33. Because Plaintiffs learned new information about the withheld documents during the course of that status conference – including that DOJ15197 is a handwritten Post-It note, id. at 31, which is not reflected on the privilege log, see Ex. 1 – Plaintiffs concluded that instead of seeking to compel disclosure before Mr. Gore’s deposition, they should determine whether other new facts could be identified at the deposition to inform a privilege challenge. Information identified during the deposition contradicts the privilege log and establishes that no privileges apply to the note.<sup>1</sup>

a. The deliberative process privilege applies to inter- or intra-agency documents that are both predecisional and deliberative. Nat’l Council of La Raza v. Dep’t of Justice, 411 F.3d 350, 356 (2d Cir. 2005). Based on the date the note was prepared (also not included on the privilege log, and discovered at Mr. Gore’s deposition), the note is post-decisional and therefore not protected by the privilege. The record has established that Secretary Ross and Attorney General Sessions spoke on September 17, 2017, the same day that the Attorney General’s aide told the Secretary’s Chief of Staff “[f]rom what John [Gore] told me, it sounds like we can do whatever you all need us to do.” Ex. 4. On September 22, Uthmeier called Gore, and they spoke about the citizenship question. Ex. 5 (Gore dep. tr. 105); Ex. 4. Shortly after that, Mr. Gore received by hand-delivery a copy of the Uthmeier Memo, with the accompanying note. Ex. 5 (Gore dep. tr. 106). These circumstances indicate that Commerce was conveying to the Justice Department “whatever you all need us to do,” Ex. 4, making the note post-decisional and not privileged.

If the deliberative process privilege does apply, the note should still be disclosed under the balancing test set out in Winfield v. City of N.Y., 2018 WL 716013 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 1, 2018). The seriousness of the litigation and the role of the agency weigh heavily in favor of disclosure here. See Tr. of Sept. 14 Conference, at 9-10. Even if disclosure may inhibit future candid debate among agency actors, see id. at 10, the two remaining factors – relevance of the evidence, and availability of other evidence – weigh in favor of disclosure. The circumstances surrounding <sup>1</sup> If the Court did intend the order at Docket No. 401 as a deadline for any challenge to this withholding (as opposed to a deadline for pre-deposition challenge), Plaintiffs respectfully seek leave to file out of time, especially in light of new information that only became available to Plaintiffs during Mr. Gore’s deposition.

the exchange of these materials from Uthmeier to Gore – including the proximity to the Ross-Sessions call, the decision to hand-deliver a memo with a handwritten note that could easily have been emailed, and other evidence that Commerce officials were mindful of the record they were creating, Ex. 4 – suggest that the note contains relevant evidence of the Commerce Department’s intent not available from another source. The withheld note also contrasts with Defendants’ production of many other communications conveying the Uthmeier Memo. Ex. 6. The note should be reviewed in camera to determine whether it should be produced, in full or in part.

b. The attorney-client privilege “protects communications (1) between a client and his or her attorney (2) that are intended to be, and in fact were, kept confidential (3) for the purpose of obtaining or providing legal assistance.” Brennan Ctr. for Justice v. DOJ, 697 F.3d 184, 207 (2d Cir. 2012). The Gore deposition confirmed that the Commerce Department is not Mr. Gore’s client. Ex. 5 (Gore dep. tr. 35-37). “Where one consults an attorney not as a lawyer but as a friend or as a business adviser or banker, or negotiator . . . the consultation is not professional nor the statement privileged.” In re Lindsey, 158 F.3d 1263, 1270 (D.C. Cir. 1998) (quoting 1 McCormick on Evidence § 88). In addition, Mr. Gore testified that the note did not solicit legal advice from him, Ex. 5 (Gore dep. tr. 108), which contradicts the privilege log, see Ex. 1. Because the handwritten note was not prepared for the purpose of obtaining legal assistance, the privilege does not attach. See Erie, 473 F.3d at 420. Mr. Gore later gave conflicting testimony, and stated that the note did request legal advice. Ex. 5 (Gore dep. tr. 111). At minimum, this inconsistent testimony warrants in camera review of the note to determine whether the claim of privilege is well-founded, or whether redaction is available. Erie, 473 F.3d at 421-22 & n.8 (2d Cir. 2007) (discussing redaction and in camera review).

c. The attorney work-product doctrine protects documents “that are prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or its representative.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(3); see In re General Motors LLC Ignition Switch Litig., 80 F. Supp. 3d 521, 531 (S.D.N.Y. 2015). Mr. Uthmeier delivered his handwritten note to Mr. Gore in September 2017; since Defendants assert that their decisionmaking process was not “initiated” until December 2017, AR 1313, Commerce could not reasonably have anticipated litigation months earlier.

Even assuming work-product applies, that protection is not absolute; the Court can compel disclosure where Plaintiffs have “substantial need . . . and cannot, without undue hardship, obtain their substantial equivalent by other means.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(3)(A)(ii). Plaintiffs have demonstrated substantial need for disclosure of the note given the unusual circumstances surrounding transmittal of the Uthmeier Memo to Mr. Gore. As the Court has recognized and Defendants have acknowledged, the Commerce Department’s intent is at issue in this case. New York v. U.S. Dep’t of Commerce, No. 18-cv-2921 (JMF), 2018 WL 4539659, at *2-3 (Sept. 21, 2018). As described above, the timing and form of these materials strongly indicate that they communicate the Commerce Department’s intent, because they were responsive to the offer that Justice would do “whatever [Commerce] need[s] us to do.” Ex. 4. At minimum, the note should be reviewed in camera to assess Plaintiffs’ request for Rule 26(b)(3)(A)(ii) disclosure on grounds of substantial need.

Counsel,

Thank you for speaking with us earlier this evening. As we discussed on the call, we have withdrawn our assertion of privilege over the document described in the seventh bullet point of Brad Rosenberg's 2:33pm yesterday email to Shankar Duraiswamy. We have notified Mr. Neuman's counsel and expect that he will produce that document to you directly.

This is to confirm that we maintain our assertions of privilege over the other six documents referenced in Brad's email. As we explained, disclosure of the documents to Mr. Neuman does not waive attorney-client privilege due to his role as a consultant and trusted adviser to senior officials at the Department of Commerce. See Trustees of Elec. Workers Local No. 26 v. Trust Fund Advisors, 266 F.R.D. 1, 7-9 (D.D.C. 2010). We also have asserted deliberative-process privilege over the documents you raised during our call. Regarding Bates 5418, as indicated in Brad's email, that document appears in our privilege logs in multiple places, including 3731, 3733, and 8568. We have therefore asserted deliberative-process privilege over this document and will continue to do so. We will also continue to assert deliberative-process privilege over Bates 2021, as asserted at Bates 3735.

Thank you,

Hi Shankar:

Following-up on and updating my email below, we have identified seven documents in Mr. Neuman's possession that we are withholding on the basis of the deliberative process privilege:

- The first document is a January 9, 2018 memorandum from Barry Robinson to Peter Davidson and James Uthmeier. The document appears in the government's privilege logs at Bates Nos. 3731, 3733, 5418, and 8568.

- The second document is a pre-decisional draft list of materials to be considered by the Secretary and appears in the government's privilege logs at Bates No. 10296. The version of this document in Mr. Neuman's files is one page shorter than the version reflected in the privilege log, as it does not contain the "Draft chart of MOU updates" described in the log. The version of the document in Mr. Neuman's files also does not contain any handwritten notes.
- The third document is a pre-decisional draft list of administrative record considerations that appears in the government's privilege logs at Bates No. 10285.
- The fourth document is a Feb. 5, 2018 memorandum from Jessica Freitas to Karen Dunn Kelley & James Uthmeier. The document appears in the government's privilege logs at Bates No. 10249, though the version of the document in Mr. Neuman's files does not contain any handwritten notes.
- The fifth document is a draft of a Jan. 9, 2018 Memo with blank "To" and "From" fields. Though the exact version of this draft does not appear on our privilege logs, a subsequent version of this document (with the "To" and "From" fields filled-in) are logged at Bates Nos. 2021 and 3735.
- The sixth document is a draft list of Commerce discussion topics for Census senior management that appears in the government's privilege logs at Bates No. COM-_DIS00020920, though the version of this document in Mr. Neuman's files does not contain any handwritten notes.
- The seventh document does not appear on our privilege logs and is being identified here. It is a list of topics/questions regarding the citizenship question.

I am attaching the referenced privilege logs for your convenience. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions.

Thanks,
-Brad

Hi Shankar:

As Howard noted in his email below, we have identified five documents in Mr. Neuman's possession on which the government is asserting a privilege and that are being withheld. We believe that all five documents, or versions of those documents, have previously been identified on the government's privilege logs, but are in the process of confirming that. I hope to follow-up with more information about those documents, including identifying where they appear on those logs, shortly.

Thanks,
-Brad

Howard,

Thanks for the update. A few responses:

1. Please send the documents that are not allegedly privileged asap. Given the timing we need to review them promptly and don't want to wait on the privilege log.
2. Please let me know who at the government you have been dealing with on privilege issues, so we know who to reach out to.
3. If you are withholding any documents based on an NDA, please identify what the NDA says about providing information or documents pursuant to court order or legal process. Thanks.

Best regards,
Shankar

Going to work on that this morning. There are a few documents that the government is claiming a privilege and I will provide as close as I can to a detailed privilege log. Those issues are between you and the government but I do not want my client to get into trouble releasing documents that are privileged.

Howard,

Can we start at 11 am? That would hopefully avoid our having to stay into Sunday evening and allow us to travel from and back to DC in the same day.

In addition, can you please produce asap the documents that you were prepared to produce before the stay was imposed? Thanks.

I would like to be briefed on Friday by phone. I probably will need an hour or so to study the memo first. We should be very careful about everything, whether or not it is likely to end up in the SC. WLR

[Not Responsive / Deliberative] Were you on the call this morning about Census? They seem dig in about not solving the citizenship question and that raises the question of where is the DOJ in their analysis? If they still have not come to a conclusion please let me know your contact person and I will call the AG. Wilbur Ross

Audio and video recording will continue to take place unless all parties agree to go off the record.

This is media unit 1 of the video-recorded deposition of John Gore, taken by counsel for the plaintiff, in the matter of the

New York Immigration Coalition, et al. Versus the United States Department of Commerce, et al.

This case is filed in the United States

District Court for the southern district of New York.

This deposition is being held at the law offices of Covington & Burling, LLP, located at

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 BY MR. HO:

2 Q. Mr. Gore, have you been deposed before?

3 A. No.

4 Q. But you have been in depositions before,
5 correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Roughly how many times have you attended
8 a deposition?

9 A. Ten.

10 Q. You understand that you're under oath
11 under penalty of perjury today?

12 A. Yes, I do.

6 MR. GARDNER: Objection.

7 Mischaracterizes the document.

8 THE WITNESS: I think what I've testified

9 to is what is here in the record, and that answer

10 speaks for itself.

11 BY MR. HO:

12 Q. Well, what did you mean by that? Were

13 you aware of any analysis as to whether or not

14 including the citizenship question on the census

15 could affect the rate at which the people respond

16 to the census?

17 A. As I said then and as I sit here today,

18 I'm not aware of any data on that issue. As I

19 first explain, Mr. Ross explains he took a hard

20 look at that issue and found no empirical evidence

21 to support the conclusion there's been a reduction

22 in response rates from reinstatement of the 35

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 citizenship question on the questionnaire.

2 Q. One more question about your testimony

3 for now, on page 27. The last question on the 4 page from representative Gandy. So if

5 Secretary Ross wanted to include a question, how

6 would a court determine whether or not that was an

7 appropriate question. I mean, I guess what I'm

8 getting at is what is the standard by which you

9 judge the inclusion or exclusion of a question on

10 the census form.

11 Your response, I think that is a very 12 good question. It's probably better directed to 13 the commerce department. I'm not involved in the 14 litigation. That's being handled out, and then 15 you got cut off.

16 What do you mean when you testified on 17 May 21st that you're not involved in the 18 litigation over the citizenship question?

19 A. I am not a counsel of record in that 20 case. I have not been involved in litigating that 21 case on behalf of the United States. I have not 22 written any of the briefs, filed any of the

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 pleadings, or done anything like that. I am not
2 witness in the case. Obviously sitting here
3 today. I was involved in the decision made by the 4 Department of Justice. But under Department of 5 Justice regulations, this is defensive litigation
6 being handled by the civil division, and the 7 counsel of record is in the civil division, not civil 8 rights division.

9 Q. When you say you're not counsel of 10 record, are you counsel in some other capacity in 11 this litigation?

12 MR. GARDNER: Objection. Vague.

13 THE WITNESS: No.

14 BY MR. HO:

15 Q. And you're not a party in this case,

16 right?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And neither the civil rights division nor

19 the Department of Justice itself is a party in 20 this case, right?

21 A. That's my understanding. I believe the

22 case was brought against the Department of 37

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 Commerce, but I've not studied the pleadings to

2 know whether the Department of Justice saparty,

3 but I believe it's not.

4 Q. You wouldn't describe yourself as a

5 consultant giving legal advice to counsel of 6 record in this case, would you?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Mr. Gore you sometimes use private --

9 A. I believe I may have done that. Yeah.

10 Q. Which of those things have you used for 11 DOJ work before?

12 A. Actually, I don't think I have used it

13 for DOJ work, now that I think about it.

14 Q. You've sometimes sent e-mails between 15 your personal g mail account and DOJ account?

16 A. I have done that, yes.

5 BY MR. HO:

6 Q. This is an e-mail to you dated

7 September 22nd, 2017. Just so the record is

8 clear, this was produced to us in discovery, the

9 electronic /SRERGZ has a file name that's stamped

10 DOJ 30651, but the document itself does not bear a

11 Bates number.

12 Mr. Gore, this is an e-mail to you from 13 cumeal lugor tory?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And it's dated September 22nd, 2017?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And this e-mail informs you that James

18 utmier from the Department of Commerce called to 19 speak with you, correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Prior to this e-mail, had you spoken with 22 Mr. Uthmeier about the citizenship question?

104

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 A. I don't recall.

2 Q. You and Mr. Uthmeier had been colleagues

3 at Jones day, correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. You knew each other from your time there,

6 correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Since -- did you socialize with

9 Mr. Uthmeier?

10 A. Not regularly, no.

11 Q. But at some point, if not regularly, you

12 socialized with him?

13 A. I might have spent time with him at 14 events sponsored by the law firm.

15 Q. Between the time you became a DOJ

16 employee and the date that you received this

17 e-mail, September 22nd, 2017, did you have any

18 other conversations with Mr. Uthmeier?

19 A. Not that I can recall.

20 Q. And at the time Mr. Uthmeier -- at the 21 time of this e-mail, Mr. Uthmeier worked in the

22 general counsel's office in the commerce

105

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 department, correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. To the best of your knowledge,

4 Mr. Uthmeier does not have any Voting Rights Act

5 enforcement responsibilities, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And to the best of your knowledge,

8 Mr. Uthmeier does not have any experience

9 enforcing the Voting Rights Act, correct?

10 A. That is correct as well. Yeah.

11 Q. Did you ever return Mr. Uthmeier's call?

12 A. Yes. I believe I did.

13 Q. Roughly when?

14 A. Sometime around when I received this 15 /PHAES. I can't remember if it was that day or 16 the following week.

17 Q. Roughly how long did you speak with
18 Mr. Uthmeier?

19 A. Not particularly long. Maybe 15 or 20 20 minutes.

21 Q. Did you talk to him about the citizenship
22 question?

106

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 A. Yes, among other things.

2 Q. At some point you received a note and a
3 memo from Mr. Uthmeier concerning the citizenship
4 question, correct?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Was the note handwritten?

7 A. Yes, it was.

8 Q. How was the note transmitted to you?

9 A. Along with the memo, it was delivered to 10 my office.

11 Q. When did you receive the note and memo?

12 A. I don't recall exactly.

13 Q. Was it after receiving this phone call to 14 your office from Mr. Uthmeier on September 22nd,

15 2017?

16 A. I believe so, yes.

17 Q. Was it before the Department of Justice

18 sent its letter to the Census Bureau on

19 December 12, 2017, requesting the citizenship

20 question?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You showed that note to other people,

107

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Who did you show that note to?

4 A. I showed it to -- I know I've shown it to 5 Cath Leantumey in the civil rights division as

6 part of the document collection. And I understand

7 that it was shown to a couple of other people in

8 the civil division who are responsible for

9 litigating this case on behalf of the United

10 States.

11 I don't recall showing it to anyone else.

12 Q. Do you know if anyone to whom you showed

13 the note showed it to anyone else?

14 A. I don't.

15 Q. Did you ever have any discussions with 16 anyone about the note?

17 A. No, I don't believe so.

18 Q. You just showed it to some people but you

19 never discussed it?

20 A. Oh, I showed it to them after receive

21 a document request in this litigation

22 /SKWAO*EURBGS gave it to them as part of the 108

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 collection of documents responsive to that --

2 potentially responsive to that request.

3 I may have had a question with ben agnaga

4 about it, but I don't recall.

5 Q. Did the note solicit legal advice from 6 you?

7 A. No.

8 Q. And you didn't provide legal advice in

9 response to that note, correct?

10 A. I believe I may have, actually.

11 Q. You testified earlier you weren't

12 providing legal advice in connection with to the 13 citizenship question question, I thought.

14 MR. GARDNER: Objection.

15 Mischaracterizes the witness' prior testimony.

16 THE WITNESS: I don't believe that was my

17 testimony.

18 BY MR. HO:

19 Q. Okay. So you think you did provide legal

20 advice to Mr. Uthmeier in response to the memo?

21 A. Now you've changed the question.

22 Q. Yeah.

109

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 A. No, I didn't provide legal advice to

2 Mr. Uthmeier.

3 Q. Did you provide legal advice to the

4 Department of Commerce in response to the note

5 from Mr. Uthmeier?

6 A. I did discuss -- now that you mention it,

7 I did discuss the note with Mr. Uthmeier and

8 Mr. Davidson.

9 Q. Did you provide legal advice to the

10 Department of Commerce in connection with the note

11 from Mr. Uthmeier?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. At this point were you anticipating

14 litigation over the possibility of including a

15 citizenship question in the census?

16 A. I'm sorry, can you say that again?

17 Q. At this point --

18 A. Right.

19 Q. -- when you received the handwritten note

20 from Mr. Uthmeier, were you anticipating

21 litigation over the possibility of the inclusion

22 of the citizenship question on the census?

110

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 A. Absolutely.

2 Q. Did the -- was the note shared with you

3 in anticipation of litigation over the citizenship

4 question?

5 MR. GARDNER: Objection. Lack of

6 foundation. Calls for speculation.

7 BY MR. HO:

8 Q. If you know?

9 A. That would be speculating. I don't know.

10 Q. Did the note state one way or the other

11 whether or not it was prepared in anticipation of 12 litigation?

13 A. I don't recall that it did.

14 Q. Did it state whether or not it was 15 requesting legal advice from you?

16 A. Yes, it did.

17 Q. Your answer is it was requesting legal

18 advice, the note?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you -- let me start this again.

21 Did the Department of Justice rely on

22 that note in drafting its request to the Census

111

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 Bureau to include a citizenship question on the

2 census?

3 MR. GARDNER: Objection. Vague.

4 THE WITNESS: The note contained

5 information regarding that issue that was

6 considered by the Department of Justice in

7 drafting its request.

8 BY MR. HO:

9 Q. Does inform -- did -- does any

10 information contained on that note /PA*ERP in the 11 Department of Justice's letter to the Census

12 Bureau requesting a citizenship question on the

13 2020 census?

14 MR. GARDNER: Objection. To the extent

15 that calls for discloche... /TK*EUGS /TK*EUGS. To 16 the extent you can answer that question without

17 divulging that, you may. Otherwise, I instruct

18 you not to answer.

19 A. Consistent with that instruction, I can't

20 answer that question.

21 MR. HO: Just so I understand the

22 question, even if information was on that letter

112

UNCERTIFIED DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 that became public, your position is that's

2 protected from my question about whether or not --

3 MR. GARDNER: Your question wasn't

4 whether it was expressly incorporated by

5 reference. At which I would agree with you, that

6 would waive the privilege. You asked if

7 information in that letter was somehow used in

8 forming the letter. That is classic deliberative

10 MR. HO: I don't think that's what my

11 question --

12 MR. GARDNER: Ask it again.

Earl-

A draft, predecisional and privileged memo is attached. I know he likes short briefing materials, but I wanted to be more thorough given the issue and our uncertainty regarding the exact question(s) being presented.

I will keep working to clean it up and am happy to incorporate any edits. I am out of the office for some MBDA and infrastructure meetings but can be reached on my cell. I'll be able to talk today other than 11-1. Will be working over the next hour to clean this up a bit.

If you want to provide some handwritten comments, you can deliver to Barb (OGC secretary) and she will get them to me quickly.

I have some new ideas/recommendations on execution that I look forward to discussing. Ultimately, we do not make decisions on how the data should be used for apportionment, that is for Congress (or possibly the President) to decide. I think that's our hook here.

Best,

James

Earl-

A draft, predecisional and privileged memo is attached. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I will keep working to clean it up and am happy to incorporate any edits. I am out of the office [REDACTED] [REDACTED] but can be reached on my cell. I'll be able to talk today other than 11-1. Will be working over the next hour to clean this up a bit.

If you want to provide some handwritten comments, you can deliver to Barb (OGC secretary) and she will get them to me quickly.

Best,

James
